

Carers Education and Development Worker

Person Specification

Experience:

- Two years experience based in a community setting working with individuals in a person centred way.
- Experience of networking and joint working with colleagues and professionals and maintaining positive working relationships.
- Experience of preparing and delivering presentations in a variety of settings.
- Ability to complete reports and collate data for monitoring and evaluation purposes.
- Ability to use IT effectively.

Attitude and Approach:

- Empathy and understanding of the challenges unpaid carers and young carers may face.
- Self-motivated and reliable with the ability to work both independently and as part of a team.
- Enthusiasm, commitment and flexibility are all essential qualities required for this post.
- Commitment to the principles of equal opportunities and inclusion and their practical implementation.
- Communicate with colleagues, Carers, and other agencies helpfully, professionally, and courteously

Knowledge and Skills:

- Excellent administrative skills, well organised with good time management and a methodical approach to work.
- Excellent communication skills both spoken and written.
- A working Knowledge of Social Media platforms.
- Excellent interpersonal and negotiating skills.
- An understanding of the principle of safeguarding and protection within Health and Social Care Services.